OFFICE OF THE DIRECTOR OF AGRICULTURE IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Notification dated the 1*st May* 1929.

It has been brought to the notice of the undersigned that bee-keepers in Malnad are unwilling to adopt the improvements suggested to them by this Department as a result of their fear that Government may ultimately put a tax on this cottage industry. The undersigned should like to assure bee-keepers that Government have no such intention whatsoever. Their sole object is to effect such improvements in the industry as will enable bee-keepers with less trouble and waste to produce more honey of superior quality and to sell it at a higher price. Bee keepers of the malnad are therefore requested to test the methods recommended by the Department, and if found more suitable, to adopt them.
